

KDS customer support

Integrated Travel and Expense can reduce your cost by 25%. However, only a fully adopted solution, with seamless ongoing support, can deliver on this goal.

Our global customer support team is specifically focused on your continued success. KDS offers three levels of support:

- Basic Support: Basic customer support via website. All KDS relationships include basic support.
- Premium Support: Increased support access and faster response times. Personalized service with advice on best practices.
- Executive Support: All benefits of premium support plus management of your system by an experienced KDS administrator.

With dedicated local support KDS is committed to safeguarding your investment and growing your ROI.
