KDS Now! is the global annual event for travel managers, finance executives, procurement, HR as well as for our valued partners and TMC's.

Don't miss this opportunity to network and share success stories with peers in your industry, take advantage of exclusive on-site experts and further optimise your T&E process.

At KDS Now!, you'll find a packed agenda that gives you plenty of opportunity to network with other users, prospects and partners, as well as KDS product managers and customer support specialists who will be on hand to demonstrate new product features and help you make the most of the KDS solution. You can also learn about KDS's product strategy and vision, and visit our workshops to get advice on how to solve your T&E woes.

We look forward to sharing our vision with you. Register today and we'll see you at the Eurosites George V, 28 avenue George V in Paris on February 2, 2012.
