

KDS's mission

Reduce our customers' T&E spend by 25%

Our mission is to help organizations of all sizes proactively control and reduce their Travel and Expense T&E costs. By providing insight into process and spending we aim to make our global customers best-in-class.

KDS solutions are designed for our customers to take them from business case to benefit realization by targeting 100% policy compliance and 100% user adoption from day one.

- On-demand end-to-end software designed to minimize costs and maximize return
- Value added professional services - provided by industry experts
- Dedicated support packages to ensure ongoing success

Our market leadership is built upon years of experience within Travel and Expense and our complete independence (we take no commission from travel providers).

We focus exclusively on aligning T&E with our customers' business objectives, reducing the overall cost and driving total compliance and complete end user adoption.

KDS is backed by Accel Partners and Atlas Ventures.
